

For a manufacturing company, production planning is a strategic activity that enables it to promptly satisfy the client's needs.

KanbanBOX provides a simple and intuitive way to manage the production of materials within the kanban system along with other production orders.

You can easily know the workload and the progress of your orders.

In addition, KanbanBOX regularly suggests the ideal sizing for your kanban system, in order to have the lowest possible supply without risking stock-out situations.

Find out more on:

www.kanbanbox.com

